

WE NOMINATE

Glenn Lowell Jepsen, one of the world's most distinguished "historians of life" and a dedicated Princetonian for some three decades, who over the weekend carried off the equivalent of a Pulitzer Prize in recognition of his major contributions to man's knowledge of man's earliest known relatives and their mammalian associates. In the Friday hubbub of New Haven, the 59-year old Jepsen, Sinclair Professor of Vertebrate Paleontology in Princeton University, became only the third recipient of the Addison Emery Verrill Medal, awarded periodically by Yale University's Peabody Museum of Natural History and emblematic of trail-blazing achievements in the broad reaches of the life sciences.

In conferring this distinction upon Jepsen, one of the first evolutionists to insist that geologists must be as well grounded in humanistic and social studies as they are in the natural sciences and mathematics, Yale pulled out all the stops. The accompanying citation, read by President A. Whitney Griswold, hailed Jepsen as a historian of life and skillful teacher whose "fundamental discoveries in a lifelong quest for ancient mammals have profoundly added to the revelation of the strange and colorful vista of the beginning of the age of mammals" and, also, underscored his role as "sustainer and contributor to the ancient and honorable tradition of natural philosophy as well as to modern methodology."

A native of Lead, S. Dak., the son of a rancher, Jepsen was a part-time student and an instructor in English at the South Dakota School of Mines before he transferred to Princeton in the mid-1920's to complete his undergraduate studies. Here he earned a Phi Beta Kappa key and highest honors in geology after having helped meet his university bills by working as a full-time assistant in the Guyot Hall Museum. The editors of the Class of 1927's yearbook noted that Jepsen planned to study geology and "then engage in geological research." A fortnight following the volume's appearance Jepsen was prospecting for fossils in the Wyoming Badlands.

Year after year, starting as a graduate student and continuing down into the present, Jepsen has helped perpetuate a Princeton tradition dating back to the 1870's when rifle-toting Princeton "bone hunters" first penetrated such regions as the Bighorn Basin in Wyoming. In the summer of 1919, and in succeeding years, Jepsen-directed expeditions hit "pay-dirt" with their discovery near Cody, Wyo., of an unsurpassed collection of "Yuma" artifacts, providing new clues to a 7,000-year old culture and enabling scientists to give substance to a long-vanished American civilization known heretofore only from scattered specimen finds.

A prolific, easy writer, and an editor of scientific publications with a flair for stimulating laymen's imagination, Jepsen shortly after World War II (during the University's Bicentennial Year, 1916-47), directed the first international symposium ever held on Genetics, Paleontology and Evolution, wherein biologists and geologists formulated plans for cooperative research in evolution. Nor has Jepsen found it necessary to travel far afield, or to consult with scientists from overseas, in making scientific news. He has repeatedly used excavations for new University buildings, notably the Firestone Library in 1916 and Wilcox Hall in 1960, as laboratories in "reconstructing" living conditions in New Jersey millions of centuries ago.

For his capacities for throwing new light on a past that is measured in terms of eons; for reflecting the kind of stimulating enthusiasm which counterbalances the often tedious demands of long-range research; for his versatility as a teacher and scientist, he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee for

"OPEN SPACE" ACCEPTED Into Master Plan. "It's an imaginative plan—almost like a dream," commented Alexander ELL, Roadsade Plan, at the start of the Township Planning Board's hearing on the Open Space Committee's proposals Thursday night.

At the conclusion of the hearing, which lasted only two hours and disclosed no apparent opposition, the Planning Board approved the report and made it part of the Township Master Plan.

The Open Space Committee has been functioning since October, 1960. In its half-<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>-inch thick report, the Committee presents a not only broadly sketched plans for the retention of Open Space in Princeton Township, but also detailed studies of geology, economics, taxation, conservation and legislation supplemented by charts, graphs, statistical tables and mathematical formulae to back up the general proposals.

"I have never seen such group work so hard with such effectiveness," said Gerald Breese, chairman of the Planning Board, who presided at Thursday's hearing.

SHOTS FOR SINGERS: Fund-raising and rehearsing may occupy the thoughts of the Princeton High School Choir these days, but other necessities have not been forgotten. Vaccinations, typhoid inoculations and passport pictures are quite as important to the choir as music and accurate pitch. Here, in the high school health office, Dr. J. R. Burdick prepares to work on the left arm of Linda Almer while Douglas McGilvra stands ready and waiting. (Staff Photo)

Space report recommends a complete program setting aside 2,758 acres, with a first stage encompassing 1,673 acres, including those in the flood plain, those set aside for neighborhood parks, playfields, reservation and "general open spaces." First, and most importantly in the eyes of the Committee, would be the 730 acres in the flood plain of Stony Brook.

This land includes both halves of the brook from the west border of the Township downstream to Carnegie Lake and from there to the dam and on the point where the stream leaves the Township; the major tributaries of the brook line area now in the process of donation from the Brookside developers and the easement given by the Hunt and August line firm in "Winfield," at The Great Road and Mountain Avenue.

For its first neighborhood parks, the committee suggests the Tyson Lane area at Hart's Brook where the Brook overflows; the unused Borough sewer field across Elm Road from Westery and the Textile Institute area.

The committee has its eye on the Textile area just in case the Institute should move some day. The property is on Lake Carnegie.

For Play. A northward extension of Community Gardens to the area behind the Unitarian Church and the Van Dyke Wright area along Snowden Lane, intersected by Terhune, would provide 87 additional acres for playfields.

As reservations, the Committee suggests a 46-acre extension of the Veeben Arboretum to Herrontown Road, an extension of Battle Field Park to include the Weller Tract behind the Society of Friends Meeting House. 94 acres in the

 that the Township will ask for improved subdivision design,
 possibly with "cluster" plans
 in which houses are so arranged on the land that a large, open area is left in the lot.

Across the Line. The role of the Borough in all this was raised at the hearing by Stanley C. Smoller, who said, "But enough people are going to live in these walkways and use these playfields and picnic areas. How do we get the Borough to contribute to the cost?"

Alan Carrick, Borough councilman who was present at the hearing, said he thought the problem could be worked out and Elwood P. Godfrey, also of Borough Council, cited the Open Space Committee's reference to sewer fields, which are not zoned properly.

Mr. Breese suggested that a joint Borough-Township appeal for Green Acres funds might bring more money into the Township. It was also pointed out that Borough Council has passed a resolution of cooperation with the Township on Open Space
 "Consolidation," said Samuel Frothingham, former chairman of the Township Planning Board.

Charles Age commended the Open Space Committee for its "excellent" thorough job
 and urged the report's immediate adoption in the face of intense pressures which would bear in upon the Township
 from the overcrowded suburbs
 of New York, Long Island and other sections of New Jersey.

"How we finance this program is a bridge we can cross
 when we come to it, if we still there," Mr. Age said. "The important thing is to adopt this into the Master Plan now and to implement it, so that we can keep ourselves an oasis in the middle of this urban sea
 that threatens to flood us."

CHOIR NEEDS $12,000
To Complete Itinerary
 Pledges from parents of the Princeton High School Singers now equal the amount to be contributed by the State Department for the choir's European tour this summer.

With $12,000 more, the group will be able to fill all
 the requests that have come to it from European universities.
 Contributions from residents of the community should be sent to Princeton High School and checks be made out to the Board of Education—Choir Fund. All contributions are tax deductible.

The Chamber of Commerce,
 through its president, J. P.
 Nevin is working on fundraising and there are indications that Princeton's service clubs will lend financial support.

The choir will travel to Ide-wild on Monday, June 11, by bus, and will depart on a Royal Dutch Airlines plane. The party of 55 students will be chaperoned by Thomas Hibish,
 director of the choir, and Mrs.

Person To Person

We got talking about the Seven Wonders of the

 came out that there were ac-

 six, different accepted groups of them, each in its own time, including the first Seven Wonders compiled in the Alexandrian period, about 200 B.C., with others following up to our modern Seven Wonders of the World including separate groups of industrial wonders. The modern wonders of the world were listed in 1933 as: 1. The Great Pyramid of Egypt and the adjacent Sphinx (2700 B.C. or earlier); 2. Hagia Sophia in Istanbul, a church and later a mosque, completed about 600

 A.D.; 3. The Leaning Tower of Pisa, completed about 1400
 A.D.; 4. The Taj Mahal of Agra, India, a mausoleum completed in 1686 A.D.; 5. The Washington Monument in Washington, D. C. (completed in 1885); 6. The Eiffel Tower in Paris (completed in 1889);
 7. The Empire State Building in New York City (completed in 1931). There also is a list of the seven wonders of transportation: 1. Automobile, 2.
 Steamship, 3. Ocean liner,
 4. Nuclear Submarine, 5.
 Jet airplane, 6. Jet plane, 7.
 Rocket. We might add an 8th wonder of transportation. He

ROUND-UP

A State Trooper and several Borough policemen stopped a car on Vandewater Avenue Monday afternoon, acting on an anonymous tip that "three gunmen drove a car with a Canadian license" were heading toward Princeton . . . when
 the three men stepped out,
 they proved to be bearded
 members of a French-Canadian religious sect.
 The tip came from a caller
 who had seen one of the men
 adjusting the upper part of his frocked apparel in the restroom of a U.S. 1 restaurant,
 with a motion picture apparently suggested a shoulder holster
 . . . too much Twisting?

An alarm Tuesday morning brought police cars and one piece of fire apparatus to the Grover Lumber Co. on Alexander Street . . . a pile of salt
 hay was the lone casualty.

Antonio Perone, 340 Ewing
 Street, could have called Public Service to learn if there was a gas leak at a manhole cover on Snowden Lane, or he could have lighted a match,
 after he lit the match, he suffered burns on the hands
 and face, and after that, Public Service confirmed that there was a leak.

No freezing temperatures in May? Well, not actually, but close enough: 37 degrees in the early hours Saturday and again Sunday . . . and last Wednesday, the highest reading was a mere 42.
 Rainfall continued in what farmers and a Green Thumb regard satisfactory quantity
 almost an inch last Wednesday, with more on Sunday
 and again Tuesday.

SKETCHES PREPARED
For Palmer Square Plot. Others are in the office for Borough open space advocates. Sketches have been readied for a commercial building to be erected on the grassy corner of Nassau Street and Palmer Square.

Fred M. Blatcher, president of Palmer Square, Inc., owners of the lot, told Borough Mayor Henry S. Patterson and Council on Tuesday night that "there probably will be a building" in response to questioning, he stated.

"I can say this. For the moment only sketches have been drawn up. So far we are taking into consideration that this has long been an open area and we plan to leave as large a part of the corner on Nassau Street wide open and landscaped as possible."

Rumors Cause Protests. Rumors had prompted letters to the Mayor and Council from Arthur E. Lewis of 41 Fisher Avenue, an architect, and by Walter D. Wagoner of 4 Hunter Road, calling upon the Borough to take action to prevent the construction of a building at the spot.

"I suggest that the Borough of Princeton consider condemning this lot and keeping it as a permanent park," Mr. Lewis wrote. "Since the University controls the Palmer Square Corporation, I am additionally surprised that they would permit construction of this adverse element."

Mr. Wagoner prophesied that an "uproar would result."

Tilov to Princeton

Gherman Tilov, who orbited the earth 17 times last August as a Russian cosmonaut and is currently on a transcontinental tour of the U.S., will come to Princeton Thursday for two hours.

Tilov is expected to arrive about noon, to speak in front of White Hall on the Princeton campus, and to tour the University before taking leave. His visit is being sponsored jointly by Whig-Clio, undergraduate debating society, and the Princeton Chapter of the American Association for the United Nations.

Arrangements for his appearance here were made by Stephen Vugten, an officer of the AAUN chapter whose home is on the Brunswick Pike. A one-time cabinet minister in his native Yugoslavia, Mr. Vugten is now professor of economics at Rider College.

from the public if a building went up.

In a Bind. "We must keep in mind," Mayor Patterson said, "that this is a very valuable piece of property and on the basis of our recent experience it would be rather fearful of the condemnation results." He stated that PSI should leave as much open space as would be economically possible.

"This is where we're going to get into a bind," Council President William H. Walker, II said. "What does 'economically possible' mean? Does it mean building up property line to property line? Is it 'economical' as far as the taxpayer is concerned? You can't talk aesthetics and economics at the same time."

Mr. Blatcher told Council that the plans would be presented for discussion when they are completed. They will also be brought before the Planning Board.

"The Planning Board works within the frame of Borough ordinances," Mr. Walker objected. "It reviews as to whether plans comply or do not comply with the ordinances. The letter writers bring this matter to the Council before this appears as a fait accompli before the Planning Board." The Borough plans to discuss the matter further with PSI.

Approve Library Plan. Princeton Public Library's dream moved a fraction closer to reality. Council agreed that it should proceed, with all caution and consideration, to relocate the approximately 35 persons living on the north side of Jackson Street. The Library's tentative plan to

DOOMED LANDMARK: Upper Pine, a distinctive part of the Princeton scene since 1896, is scheduled for demolition when Palmer Square, Inc. replaces it with a new structure housing stores, offices and apartments. No date has been set for the ground-breaking, but tenants have been told their leases will only be renewed on a month-to-month basis. Construction of Palmer Square East may begin next fall, more likely early in 1963, with announcement of definite plans expected in the near future. (Staff Photo)

the new library will house not only these, but other large manuscript collections as well.

There will be, in the new library, a collection of microfilm copies of original documents in the Department of State relating to Mr. Dulles' tenure as secretary.

TO DEDICATE LIBRARY

In Honor of Dulles. The John Foster Dulles Library of Diplomatic History, a memorial to the late Secretary of State which will house his personal papers, will be dedicated next Tuesday at 3 p.m. ceremonies in the University Chapel. President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Ambassador Arthur H. Dean will speak on Mr. Dulles' achievements in public affairs and Dr. Henry P. Van Dusen, president of Union Theological Seminary, will summarize Mr. Dulles work as a Christian layman.

The Dulles library wing opens from the Special Collections area in the southeast corner of Firestone Library and will be entered through the Rare Books and Manuscripts Room on the first floor.

It is a two-story hexagonal unit containing three individual study rooms, especially designed for work with large manuscript collections, a reading room with basic reference books, a bibliographic area and, below, a room equipped for the storage of extensive manuscript collections including a special security section for classified Dulles material.

Before his death, Mr. Dulles gave to Princeton his personal papers, covering his long career in diplomatic affairs, and comment Monday night on a Chamber of Commerce letter urging a study of consolidation.

Committee had asked the new Borough administration and its Mayor, Henry S. Paterson, to state their stand on the subject, and Mayor Paterson had said that he would have a statement ready by May 1.

However, the statement had not been received as of Monday night's meeting, and so Committee decided to withhold comment until Mayor Paterson's reply. Committee did not discuss a similar letter
from ex-Committee member William Marvel (see Mailbox, page 18) for the same reason.

Committee approved the revised stop-street resolution,
which leaves out the Bureau of Traffic Safety's demand that the Township make Valley

Road a through street.
The Township Traffic Safety
Committee will meet this Thursday to discuss the Valley Road situation, which may be forced into action soon by the state. In effect, the state has the power to say, "If you don't make Valley Road 'through',
then we will."

Sewers Agilo. "If we can raise $100,000, would you build a sewer?" asked A. J. Cevera, 5 Hillside Avenue, after Committee had approved a resolution to ask for Federal aid in the design of a Hillside sewer.

Mr. Cevera was referring to Great Road property owners who had agreed to make sewer payments on their sewer assessments.

Mayor R. Kenneth Fairman said the Township would, but he urged Mr. Cevera to wait.
He said that each property owner would probably be assessed between $1,000 and $1,500, and that if the Township could not deposit of $300
to $500, it would be helpful
in planning.

"If there is no early Federal green light on planning, we won't sit around waiting," promised Mayor Fairman. "If it takes them more than 60 days, we'll consider another course."

He said that Township representatives would meet next week with Montgomery Township officials to discuss a regional sewer for the area, but he said he thought that Montgomery was more interested in other sections than in Hillside
and that the Township would probably have to go it alone.

Committee decided to ask
the state for permission to transfer the $11,794 balance
left over from the Walnut Lane construction to the proposed re-alignment of Alexander Street. Mayor Fairman said that West Windsor will probably defer its part of the Alexander construction until 1963, and that the Township would rather wait so that both municipalities can work on the road at the same time.

In other business, Committee promised Frank J. Bocca-fuso from probationary patrolman to full patrolman, effective June 1, and decided to change the name of Princeton Pike to Mercer Road. It will not be in use to be "Princeton Pike" after it crosses the Lawrence Township line.

News Of The THEATRES

SAVOYARDS PRESENT...
Gilbert & Sullivan. It's a pity, in a way, that the Savoyards of Princeton can't give "Pinafore" or "Mikado" every year but logistics being what they are this is impossible and Princeton audiences must be content, as they very well were over the weekend, to see operettas like "Trial by Jury" and "The Sorcerer" now and again in return for the old stand-bys. Traditionally partners on a double bill, these two early Gilbert and Sullivan works were presented with style and verve in McCarter Thursday, Friday and Saturday, in productions directed by Munroe Wade and guided musically by Vernon Boswell for the Princeton Savoyards.

"Trial" offers us, in one brief scene, a glimpse behind the British bar. A breach of promise suit is being tried, and the gentlemen of the jury are obviously moved by the beauty and fluttering eyelids of the charming plaintiff that they regard the defendant a little more than a secondhand. Singing the role of the judge is a gentleman whose judicious eye is more for the ladies than for the law—David Cain makes the most of almost no voice at all, to bring a comic character to ludicrous life.

Viola Punisi, as the plaintiff, has voice, beauty and charm and the guile to seduce a whole panel with one heaving sigh. Did, we wonder, the mid-Victorian D'Oyly Carte production allow the plaintiff's shapely ankle to be stroked?

In "The Sorcerer," Gilbert and Sullivan brew a love potion for all the inhabitants of a small English village with consequences that are alarming but not insoluble.

Franklyn J. Carr sings the Sorcerer. John Wellington Wells, with a creaking iron

MY NAME IS JOHN WELLINGTON WELLS: Lots of sodium flames and torrid explosions highlight (quite literally) the Princeton Savoyards' production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Sorcerer." The old man himself, John Wellington Wells is responsible for it all. Franklin Carr plays the role in the Savoyards' offering. (Ulli Steltzer Photo)

voice and a benignly demonic manner. Fred-Munro Ferguson as the curate is possibly the best of the cast, achieving in his role the impossible goal of portraying a simpering fool without appearing to be a simpering fool.

He is humorous, he knows when to underscore a line and when to underplay one, and he draws laughter from the audience in all the right places—not an easy thing to do with such a part. Debbi Truxal is a charming Alce, and Janet Thorsen is an enchantingly pert Constance.

However, it is Munroe Wade as the director who deserves the best part of applause. He has arranged delightful pieces of business for his cast which serve to unify the production, to make it quite professional and to retain audience attention throughout a double bill which is not guile so entrancing as some other G & S offerings.

While everyone on stage is in a mystic trance, Mr. Wade sends his Sorcerer about, measuring bust, waist and hip of enchanting young maiden, or picking the pocket of hypnotized youth. He presents his Sorcerer with a preposterous teacettle in use for brewing his love philtre.

He preoccupies his Jury with copies of the London "Times" and sets them into futile weeping fits as they hear hear the crocodile tears of the young plaintiff. In fact, it is almost more fun to watch the extras in the back row than to watch the principals sing a love duet.

On the music side, the double bill is perhaps less even. Mr. Boswell has a combination of amateur and semi-professionals and he has some difficulty keeping them together, and in perfect beat with his amateur and semi-professional orchestra. It is always dismaying to find chorus and orchestra a shade apart, but with music such as Sullivan's where the best means so much, and with lyrics like Gilbert's which must patter along with the music or be hopelessly lost, a lack of communication between conductor and singers is lamentable.

It is entertaining to see "Trial by Jury" and "The Sorcerer" because one rarely has a chance to see either, but Princeton audiences may be forgiven if they look forward to subsequent seasons which may offer Gilbert and Sullivan

Drunks Wanted

"The Drunkard, or The Fallen Sinner," a Moral Domestic Drama in five acts, will be given by the Princeton Community Players in June.

Troubadors for the 19th century melodrammer will be held in Murray Theatre on campus this Thursday, Friday and Sunday at 8 p.m.

In addition to scene-chewing acting, the production will require singers for Gay Nineties songs and dancers for Gay Nineties vaudeville. Harrison Ellis will direct and Peggy Bayer will supervise the intermission extravaganzas.

in happier and more familiar form.

"ANYTHING" COMES
Back Again in McCarter. "Anything Goes," gone for a week from the McCarter boards, will be back again for its two final performances this Friday and Saturday at 8:30.

A benefit production for the McCarter Center for the Performing Arts, "Anything Goes" is the second production to be given by a group of professional, semi-professional, and amateurs dedicated to the ideals of the Center. Last year's "Guys and Dolls" was the first.

The delightful hit by Cole Porter, which sparked the mid-thirties out of depression doldrums, has been directed for this McCarter production by Milton Lyon.

DANCERS ARE READY
For Tchaikovsky, Copland. Led by a contingent of 3-year-olds with a group of Princeton seniors bringing up the rear, the Princeton Ballet Society will present "The Nutcracker" and "Corral" next Saturday, May 20, at 8:30 and next Sun.—Continued on Page 6

APARTI TO DANCE

In Five Recitals, Pupils of the Apurri School of Dance 217 Nassau, are presenting a series of five ballet recitals,
the second of which will be given this Sunday at the University Store.

Students in the Ballet II division will appear in this Sunday's recitals, following the students of Ballet I who appeared last Sunday.

During the weekend of May 19, the last three recitals will demonstrate the talents of the intermediate to advanced students, with nine dancers showing full point technique.
These nine are Shelley Barker, Diane Goodheart, Anne Hrus-
dale, Ellen Huntington, Lee Himm, Margo Tolmisky, Gretchen Ward, Pamela Waterfall and Susan Woolford.

The Apurri Dancers will dance "Tango" to music by Martini, and Kirsty Pollard with Leslie Cameron will appear in an original pantomime,
"Queen Elizabeth."

day, May 14.

Taking suggestions from the audience, or demonstrating
how-to-improvise on their own,
the company will display the talent that has led critics to speak of "genius at work . . .
fresh, exuberant, witty." ("The Times" man again.)

Their offerings range from
the sophisticated to the tender,
from slapstick to intellectual,
from bitterness to cynical, al-

IT'S NEW

To Us

HOW'S YOUR WALL?

FILL IT UP! Housewives who exhibit complete poise in the selections of drapery or pillow have been known to draw a blank when confronted with a blank wall.

Ladies who experience this difficulty may find considerable relief in the consultative services available at Kalen's, the art supply shop at 138 Broad Street in Trenton, because Kalen's makes a specialty of wall decoration.

Let us suppose that you have an Early American livingroom and a blank, Early American wall. Mr. Superstein and his associates will arrange, let us say, a pair of old prints representing the Governor's Palace and the Court House at Williamsburg; a large horizontal print, possibly a Revolutionary War battle scene, and below it, two modestly scaled oval prints, all in a decorative harmony with the period of the room itself.

For a modern living-room, Kalen's might suggest, for behind a sofa, a verticle mosaic on the right, an elongated abstract directly above the sofa, and possibly an "object"—a bit of driftwood or a mobile dictionary above the piece of furniture.

This decorative service, although limited to walls, is by no means limited: prints, original oils, sconces, mobiles, statuary are all within the province of the decorators at this art shop.

Get Some Old Oil?

Restoring an old oil painting is an intricate process involving chemistry, aesthetics and a knowledge of art history.

You'll find, if you have an heirloom oil that needs rejuvenation, that Kalen's, 138 South Broad Street, Trenton, is eminently equipped to provide all the technique and artistry required to restore your painting to whatever it was in the beginning. Mr. Superstein, who does the restoration work, will reassure you with references from people who have found a work—well, maybe even better than the work of the original artist, who knows? In any case, it's worth your time to take your grubby old oils to Trenton for an appraisal. Incidentally, Mr. Superstein will restore frames, too, regilding them with gold leaf and a fine artist's hand.

Kalen's is particularly pleased at the moment, with the discovery of a French artist named de Cachard whose oils are, quite possibly, the collector's items of the future. We found them distinctive, strongly linear in design and execution, and certainly worthy of examination.

In his feeling for line, de Cachard employs the vertical thrust of ships' masts, bare tree limbs, or cathedral spires or the horizontal undulations of waves and the geometries of paving stones. Most of his scenes are Parisian or Italian—we found a reflection of St. Mark's perhaps the most evocative and the most startlingly original.

Beyond art and the restoration of it, Kalen's has a wide variety of accessory pieces, like crystal sconces from Florence, a Limoges urn with charming figures in bas relief, a set of Florentine nested tables, delicately traced in gold, and a collection of Early American pieces, beginning with a staunch, solid brass eggle.

TOSS THE BOUQUET

It's Wedding Time. A shade away, but brides have already begun to block out trousseaus and linen chests and guests are balancing bankbooks in an effort to see how much can be allocated to whom. Stone's Linen Shop, ear to the ground as always, has a splendid collection of white satin and lace, beginning with a lingerie set in white consisting of three pieces ($12.95), a little jewel drum ($2.50) and a big tissue case for $2.50 and a hose case.

Pale aqua satin, lined, has a stylized "monogram" that looks rather like a contorted Greek key design. A pale yellow moire lingerie set has an aqua fleur de is in the center of its component pieces. There are even a striped ticking lingerie cases for somebody who is either very young or else not a bride at all. The pieces have a border of blue fringe, a shield in the center and consists of jewel drum and three-piece set.

A surprising encounter in this stronghold of flax and wool is a sterling silver cake knife with stainless steel handle. It costs $5 and has a bouquet of lilies of the valley attached to its wrappings.

Well, there are lots of things you can give a bride: a bridal book in white tooled leather, moire or satin, from $3; a pair of white satin scarfs with lace trim, or a bridal handkerchief made of impalpable all-over embroidered linen for $12.50.

Matouk provides hand-embroidered sheets and pillowcases on fine percale ($14.95 and up) and Molye Lillendell has a sheet and case set with the palest blue lilies of the valley for $29.95.

A ocean liner could be furnished with the 24-karat gold plated fixtures available now at Stone's. There is a delightful little purse-sized hand mirror, a glass perfume bottle in a gold holder, some trays, an exquisite little bevied glass jewel case, a tissue holder in the same gracefully wrought gold, and even a bud vase.

Moving out of the boudoir and onto the beach, in the interests of summer, we find a jaunty collection of straw hats to keep the sun in his place. One has a kind of lattice construction with three red cariations marching up from the brim. Another has an improbable black velvet ribbon threading its way through the lattice, and at final one has a all and flexible crown of soft straw pieced together of ordinary straw.

MUSIC In Princeton

BAEZ AT MIDNIGHT
In McCarter, "The proudest product of the urban folk-song revival," according to New York Times critic Robert Shelton, is Joan Baez, who will appear in a midnight concert in McCarter on Saturday, May 12, following the last performance of "Anything Goes."

Appearing with her will be The Greenbriar Boys, a group whose banjoist, Bob Yellin, played in the McCarter production of "Dark of the Moon."

Critics and listeners have found her pure young voice—Miss Baez is only 20—surprisingly unaffected and artless, capable of discovering fresh and touching emotion in each song. She has had the usual campus sell-out success, but she has also received critical acclaim from the Town Hall recitals in New York.

AMATEURS TO MEET

For a final gathering, The St. Matthew Passion by Johann Sebastian Bach will occupy members of the Princeton Society of Musical Amateurs when they gather for their final meeting of the season this Sunday at 5 in the gymnasium at Miss Fine's School.

J. Merrill Knapp will direct chorus and orchestra. The soloists will be Ellie Valentine, soprano; Rachel Armstrong, contralto; Robert Holland, tenor and Clyde Tipton, bass. Elizabeth Davidson will be the pianist.

All who wish to participate are invited to attend. Reservations for music and refreshments should be made with Mrs. MacKenzie Bryan, before 5 this Friday. Mrs. Bryan may be reached at WA 4-6453 between 2 and 5 weekdays.

CHORUS WILL SING

In Spring Concert, A program ranging from Bach to Rodgers will be presented this Friday, May 11, by members of the Hopewell Valley Chorus in the auditorium of the Hopewell Bo. High School at 8:30.

The chorus, open to anyone who enjoys singing, draws its membership from Hopewell, Pennington, Princeton, Blawenburg, Belle Mead, Plainsboro and Lincolne, and sings under the direction of Jack Hitchcock, minister of music for the First United Presbyterian Church, of Hopewell.

For its spring concert, the chorus has chosen a group of Civil War songs, a medley of songs from "The Sound of Music," a spiritual, two operatic selections and the Bach chorale, "Now Let All the Heavens Adore Thee."

YORK GIVEN COMMISSION
For Choral Anthem, David S. York, professor of theory at Westminster Choir College, has composed a choral anthem, "Go Ye Into All the World," which will have its premiere at the American Baptist Convention in Philadelphia on Sunday, May 27.

The work was commissioned by the Calvary Baptist Church, Charleston, W. Va., and will be sung by the choir of that church in Convention Hall during a service commemorating the 100th anniversary of the mission of Adoniram Judson, the first American Baptist missionary.

Mr. York has taken his text from the Gospels of Matthew and Mark and from the hymn, "In Christ There Is No East or West." His work has been composed for mixed chorus and organ and will be published by the Theodore Presser Music Company as part of the Westminster Choir College Library Series.

AFRICAN WORKS SET

For "African Symphony"

The works of Fela Sowande, Nigerian composer, will be featured on the program of the "African Symphony" to be given in Carnegie Hall on Friday, June 1, at 8:30.

Mr. Sowande has been living in Princeton and studying with Roger Sessions on a Rockefeller Foundation Fellowship. Following his residence here, he will return to Nigeria to teach at the University College of Ibadan.

Under the conditions to be heard during the concert will be Mr. Sowande's "Folk Symphonies" commissioned by the Nigerian government to mark the independence of the

3,000 Sing at Ocean Grove
Westminster Choir College will sponsor a choir festival Saturday at 4 in the Ocean Grove auditorium, bringing together nearly 3,000 singers from 60 churches in one of the largest choral concerts in the east.

Dr. John F. Williamson, president emeritus of Westminster and internationally-known choral conductor, will lead the choirs. Dr. Alexander McCurdy, head of the organ department at Westminster and Curtis Institute in Philadelphia, will be guest organist.

Westminster has sponsored choir festivals almost annually since 1928. In 1953, area festivals began for alumni of the college and are now being held in 25 sections of the country.

The concert on October 1, 1960, is a benefit for the Center for an African Cultural Center in New York City.

NOTHING IS FOR NOTHING: Geraldine Page, as the has-been movie star, taunts her hard-climbing parasite, played by Paul Newman, in "Sweet Bird of Youth," coming to the Playhouse next Wednesday.

has been moved from Iowa to Texas.

It's about the Frake family at the State Fair. Tom Ewell, as Pa, has an entry, Blue Boy, in the hog competition. Pat Boone, the son, is a contestant in the car race; Pamela Tiffin, the daughter, is on the lookout for romance; and Alice Faye, as Ma, has her branded mince meat up for judging. There are complications in the form of Wally Cox as a trial judge, Ann-Margaret, a mid-key performer, and Bobby Darin, a pseudo-sophisticated TV announcer. Jose Ferrer has directed. Comment: colorful and tuneful fare for all ages.

"Sweet Bird of Youth" (May 16-22) includes no less than four of the original stage performers of this angry, sordid, bitter play by Tennessee Williams. Paul Newman throws into his portrayal of the young man in search of the easy "big chance," all the intensity which made his stage appearance so noteworthy. Geraldine Page matches him in brilliance in her role as the washed-out Hollywood star.

Also from the Broadway show are Rip Torn, as the vicious son of the state's political boss, and Madeleine Sherwood, as the abused mistress of the boss. Ed Begley, as Boss Finley, turns in a powerful characterization of an unscrupulous man.

The basic thread of the plot revolves about Miss Page and her affair with Newman. The latter is torn between his love for Boss Finley's daughter, played by Shirley Knight, and the frightened bewildered star who has sought release from her bitter reality in the bottle and the dope-laden cigarette ("not the regular kind, that only give you cancer.") Comment: strong and unrelenting drama.

THE GARDEN

Odd Obsession (May 9-15) tells of an aging art connoisseur, married to a beautiful woman, whose efforts to combat his failing virility result in tragedy to all concerned. Machuki Kyo, the top feminine star of Japanese films, and Gaijuro Kazumura play the leading roles.

The film is based upon the novel "Kagi," or "The Key," a best seller in Japan, written by Junichiro Tanizaki who is considered Japan's outstanding living author. The photography is striking, employing a pile color with results somewhere between regular black-and-white and full color brilliance. Comment: off-beat, for adults.

Viridiana (May 16-22) is preceded by a short film, "Water's Edge," for which Princeton's Frank Lewin composed the music. Filmed in Switzerland and Maine by Luis Bunuel, it has won many awards in Europe. Lewin's original music, although it uses in some cases European folksongs, is almost a tone poem and adds immeasurably to the beauty and mystery caught by the camera.

The main feature, Viridiana, is a shocking art disturbing story of the corruption of a young woman who has planned to become a nun. Written and directed by Luis Bunuel, the film won the Grand Prix at the 1961 Cannes Festival. The cast includes Fernando Rey, Silvia Pinal, Francisco Rabal and Margarita Lozano, all of whom are uniformly good.

The plot concerns an old Spanish "hidalgos," Fernando Rey, who has lived in solitude since the death of his bride on the evening of their wedding many years ago. When he learns that his niece, Silvia Pinal, is about to take her final vows, he prevails upon her to visit him to say goodbye. Her resemblance to his dead wife irresistibly attracts him and he persuades her to don his wife's wedding gown. With the help of his housekeeper, Margarita Lozano, he tries to drug her coffee and possess her. He then hangs himself as the horrified girl hurries to the convent. When police inform her of his suicide, she decides to stay at the farm to expiate by charitable works her part in the event.

The harrowing climax, involving Rey's illiterate son, Francisco Rabal; his mistress, the housekeeper and hordes of cripples and beggars is as stirring as well as repelling. Comment: not recommended for immature adults.

be made through Mr. Miller. The Second New Jersey District will hold its next meeting at 8 p.m. May 23 in the Knights of Columbus Home, 111 Prospect Avenue. William D. Stillwell, Master, will preside.

WHO'S FOR CAMELOT?
Fair-Tree Saturday, "A Country Fair at Camelot," the annual Princeton Country Day School Fair, will be held this Saturday on the school grounds, Broadmead, to the tune of medieval gaily, jousting, caparisoned ponies ready to ride and a raffle which offers such prizes as color TV—stained glass, of course—and an oil portrait by Peter Cook, who does not paint in the Arthurian manner.

Tickets for carnival rides, midway and refreshments may be obtained at King Arthur's Round Table. At the Midway, will be games of skill and chance, such as Crossing the Moon, Scaling the Castle Wall, Hitting the Bull's Eye in the Dart Throw, Smashing China, Medieval Tallyho, Tattle Throw and Wishing Well.

Carnival rides will feature a whip and swing-away ride and those ponies, in addition to Karting in miniature automobiles. Allen Whitlock will demonstrate the art of the trampoline and invite customers to try their own skill and luck. There will be a beauty contest to choose Queen Guinevere (nominate anyone), a plant exhibit and sale, a bake shop and refreshment booth.

STUDY MADE

And School Participants.

Witherspoon School has been taking part in a study of "teaching machines" (programmed instruction) designed to help teachers know what to expect from a course taught in this manner.

WHO'S A DRAGON? Not me, says young Bryan Considine as he contemplates a red, white and blue dragon who has been invited to the "Country Fair at Camelot" this Saturday at Princeton Country Day School. The dragon was executed, if one may be pardoned the expression, by Mrs. John Roberts. (Staff Photo)

A number of schools throughout New Jersey, including Witherspoon, are helping to develop criteria which can be used to judge the quality of programmed instruction. The study is being made with the cooperation of Educational Testing Service.

TREE POLICIES SET

By Shade Commission. The Township Shade Tree Commission is investigating the possibility of planting shade trees on private property close to the street right of way, if the property owner would like to have the tree at a minimum cost. Such a policy has been followed in the Borough with considerable success.

Members of the Commission, urging homeowners to plant new trees with humor and good mood, point out the existence of a humus pile at the foot of John Street in Community Gardens. The limited quantities of compost in this pile derive from years of leaf-dumping by Township and Borough, and homeowners are welcome to whatever they can dig out.

The Commission would like to see both municipalities dump leaves on convenient land so that householders could use the resulting compost to feed their trees.

James Breth, Township engineer, is when asked to prepare a map showing the location of all trees that should be removed with an estimate of the cost of removal. The Commission has decided that shade trees on public right of way will be replaced when removed if no other suitable tree is growing within 50 feet.

WELLESLEY CLUB MEETS

Next Wednesday, the annual meeting of the Wellesley Club of Central New Jersey will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert K. Spedford, 24 Fackler Road. The meeting will begin with a picnic supper at 6:30.

Election of officers will follow. Proceeds of 2903 which was raised by the Club from its annual Antiques Show will be sent to the college for the Faculty Advancement Fund and the Mrs. Margaret Fine Scholarship Fund.

SKY DIVERS COMING

As Part of Rodco. The Tri-State Sky Divers Club of Flemington will take part in the Central New Jersey YMCA Camps Rodco scheduled for Friday and Saturday, May 18 and 19, on Route 206 near Princeton Airport.

Three jumpers will participate, stunting free fall and balloon-passing acts. The shows will be staged 30 minutes before each rodco performance. Friday at 7:45 p.m., Saturday at 12:45 and 7:45 p.m.

Six major events will be a part of the rodco program: saddle bronco riding, calf roping, steer wrestling, Brahman bull riding and girls' barrel racing. Cory Kammer, president of Knudsen-Buick Pontiac, is producing the show, which will benefit the Central New Jersey YMCA Camp program.

Ralph Mason is president of the camp association. Tickets Commenced on Page 15

Obituaries

Walter F. Hall, 78, of 1 Elm Road, emeritus Dodge Professor of History at Princeton University, died of a heart attack May 3 in Austin, Tex., while visiting his son.

Known to thousands of Princetonians as "Buzzer" in recognition of his hearty aid, Professor Hall taught at the University for almost 40 years and gained a wide reputation among his colleagues and students for his ability to "awaken the intellectual curiosity of beginning college students."

"Long after graduates have forgotten most of their studies," wrote a former student in a magazine article, "they can recall vividly how Buzzer Hall made history alive in his stormy and unorthodox lectures, especially his Garibaldi lecture, which never failed to pack the hall with listeners. He was so fond of Garibaldi that he named one of his sons for him."

Nearly 1,000 undergraduates, alumni and faculty members crowded into Alexander Hall at the time of his retirement in 1952 to hear Professor Hall's final course lecture. Concerned that the students look themselves too seriously, he advised them again to "keep a merry twinkle in your eye."

It was on this occasion that a student-faculty committee announced the creation of the Walter Phelps Hall Lecture Series that would feature each year a public lecture "unlike Professor Hall no longer desires to lecture."

Born in Newburgh, N. Y., on May 1, 1884, he attended Hotchkiss School, where he later served as an alumni trustee. He graduated from Yale with honors in 1906 and received his doctorate from Columbia in 1912. After teaching at Amherst College for two years, he joined the Princeton history department in 1913 and became Dodge Professor of History in 1933.

Professor Hall was an authority in the field of modern European history and author of a number of important historical works. He continued to lecture regularly before alumni and undergraduate groups after his retirement.

He is survived by his wife, the former Margaret Fullerton Nixon, who had accompanied him to Texas, and by his son, Prof. Michael Garibaldi Hall, a member of the faculty of the University of Texas in Austin. An older son, Walter P., Jr., was killed in action in Italy in World War II while serving with the United States Infantry.

Mrs. Katherine Y. Garver, 24, 228 B. Henson Street, died May 4 in Princeton Hospital. She had been a resident of Princeton for the past two years.

The wife of Gerald Garvey, she was born in Kansas City, Mo. The funeral was held in the Lady Chapel of Trinity Episcopal Church, the Rev. Dr. Robert B. Spars, Jr., officiating. Interment was in Fernwood Cemetery, Henderson, Ky., under direction of Kumble Funeral Home.

Joseph R. Baldwin, 80, of Ringoes, died May 4 at a nursing home there. A retired farmer who lived for many years on Dublin Road, Princeton, he was a brother of Edward V. Baldwin of Princeton.

Other survivors are a daughter, Mrs. B. Gertrude Godwin of Ringoes; a son, Joseph S. Baldwin of Hopewell; and four grandsons.

The service was held at a Pennington funeral home, with burial in Highland Cemetery, Hopewell.

Theodore F. Carter, 75, a native of Hightstown, died May 3 in Cocoa Fla., where he had lived since 1947.

Mr. Carter was a retired employee of the State Highway Department, living in the Hightstown area until he moved to Florida 15 years ago. He was a brother of Edward V. Baldwin of Princeton and also leaves two sons, Joseph V. of Hightstown and Walter M. of Trenton and two grandchildren.

The service was held at a Hightstown funeral home, with the Rev. David R. Mayskens, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial was in Bordenstone Cemetery.

Mrs. Henrietta Clark, 67, of 41 Phillips Avenue, Lawrenceville, died May 2 in Helene Reid Hospital. The widow of

William H. Clark, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. T. Lacey of Lawrenceville and Mrs. Russell E. Carney of Trenton; a sister, Mrs. Nathan Smith of Lebanon and two grandchildren.

The service was held at the Mather Funeral Home, the Rev. Harold Keller of Wesley Methodist Church officiating. Interment was in Titusville Presbyterian Cemetery.

Lena Blanchard Walton, 97, died May 6 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Chambers, 492 Princeton-Kingsford Road. She was the widow of the late Edward V. Walton, former superintendent of schools, Roselle, N. J.

She was a member of the Second Presbyterian Church and the Silentia Chapter, O.E.C., of Butler.

In addition to her daughter, she is survived by two sons, Frank L. of Glen Ridge, and Charles E. of Gloucester, Va.; four grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

The service was held in Springfield, the Rev. Hugh Liffman of the Second Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment was in Presbyterian Cemetery, Springfield.

Alden L. Randall, 54, of 103 Patten Avenue, died May 7 of a heart attack at his home. A past president of the Princeton Stamp Club, he was born in New York City and was employed as a salesman for the Tilo Roofing Company.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Wanda Donne Randall; a son, Robert A.; two daughters, Carolyn M. at home and Mrs. William A. Nye of Philadelphia; his father, Roy Randall of Princeton; two sisters, Mrs. John Mang of Alexandria, Va., and Mrs. Alice Provoker of Princeton; and a brother, Robert of Kensington, Conn.

The service was held at the Mather Funeral Home, the Rev. Francis C. Huntington of Trinity Episcopal Church, officiating. Interment was at the convenience of the family.

WHEN DULLES CAME TO PRINCETON: Photographer Howard Schrader took this memorable picture of the late John Foster Dulles when the Secretary of State attended his 50th reunion here in 1958. With him are President Robert F. Goheen (left) and Dr. Harold W. Dodds. The personal papers of Mr. Dulles were willed to Princeton and a Library of Diplomatic History named in his memory will be dedicated Tuesday. (Story, page 3)

COUNSELOR TO TALK
At PTA Meeting, Mrs. Irbay Houston of Opinion Research Corporation, will address members of the Princeton High School PTA next Wednesday evening. She will discuss the emotional and psychological importance of the "climate" of a school upon its students.

Mrs. Houston, a newcomer to Princeton, worked in Philadelphia with foster children as a case worker and as a guidance counselor in the public schools. She attended South Carolina State College and graduated from Howard University. She received her masters degree in psychology from Howard and is now working for a doctorate at Temple University.

New officers will be elected at the meeting. Refreshments will be served.

ANGLOPHILES TO MEET
Next Tuesday, A meeting of the Daughters of the British Empire will be held at 8 p.m. next Tuesday. The gathering will be at the home of Mrs. J. T. Dunn of 11 Balsam Lane.

GOP WOMEN TO MEET
This Thursday, The Women's Republican Club of Princeton will hold its annual meeting at 3 p.m. this Thursday in the home of Mrs. Robert W. Johnson, Jr., 108 Edgerstone Road. Tea will be served following the business session.

KIWANIS TO MAKE LOANS
To High School Students. Three $250 student loans will be given by The Kiwanis Club of Princeton to high school seniors from the Princeton area who will enter college this fall.

There will be no interest on the loans until after graduation and the principal will not be due until one full year after the student has graduated. The recipient will have six years to repay the loan in small amounts.

Know a Language?

Besides English, that is. The Jaycees have established a "language bank" to provide interpreters and guides for Princeton residents or visitors who do not speak English, and who might find their lack of English a matter of life or death — in case of severe accident, for example.

Anyone who speaks a foreign language well, and is willing to be deposited in the bank, may fill out an application and send it in to the Jaycees. The resulting list will be given to Princeton Hospital, the First Aid and Rescue Squad, Borough, Township and State Police and other community service organizations.

The application is available at TOWN TOPICS.

public, private or parochial school are eligible, so long as the student live in the greater Princeton area. Applications should be made to Dr. Russell S. Edmonds, Province Line Road, R.D. 3, Princeton. Selections will be made by the Kiwanis student loan committee on the basis of need, character, citizenship, extracurricular activity, desire for a college education and grades.

Funds for the loans come from the "Adventure Series" of films sponsored by Kiwanis.

NEW FIRM ORGANIZED
In Electronics. Telexplex Corporation, a new company which will devote its efforts toward developing highly reliable miniature equipment for electronic data handling, has begun operations at Route 206 and Cherry Valley Road.

Members of the corporation include Ayhan Hakimoğlu, formerly director of engineering, electronics with General Devices, Inc.; Dudley Woodbridge, previously associated with the Princeton division of Electro-Mechanical Research, Inc.; formerly Applied Science Corporation of Princeton; and Donald Bruni, also associated with General Devices.

BROOM SALE HAS HOPES

Of Clean Sweep. The West Windsor Lions Club will peddle brooms, buckets and other items this Saturday in a house-to-house canvass to benefit its community service projects. Co-chairmen Al Johansen and Charles Averano have announced May 19 as the rain date.

The broom sale and the December fruit cake sale are the only sources of funds for the Lions' civic work. The club sponsors Little League, and Scouting activities, the Lions Day Camp, and the Eye Bank of Delaware Valley. It also purchases eyeglasses for needy children, crutches, wheel

It's Time To Us

To keep all these hats company, Stone's has assembled a group of straw bags, some thing rather new for this lion shop.

Use "straw" in a general sense because some are raffia and some are bamboo, but in these days, "straw" means in anything that's summer.

We liked the creel-type one with leather top, and the little creel that could be the daughter half of a mother-daughter combination. Bags are leather lined and we mean LEATHER in some cases, and the one with a zipped-in leather insert so that you can have a carry-all and a secure ripped compartment to hold wallet, unspilled hills and the like. It's $10.95.

Prices generally range from $3.50 to $12.95, and the bags can be used as prim shopping bags or as picnic carry-alls, the size distribution is that great.

While we're on that picnic, let's examine Vera's cotton or terry overblouses, planted this year with watermelon and we don't mean watermelon patches, either.

Some designs have black seeds and white dots, others have pink juicy quarters dripping from pocket and pocket, others have great, thick slices in the pink production of an overall print. These are white garments, some cut like short shorts. Ever take a short coat through a melon patch?

Stone also provides you with giant beach towels in aqua and green stripes, gold and green stripes or just plain Marlex.

UNDERWRAPS

That's You, From Bailey. The wrap-around skirt is the favorite this spring at Bailey's, the shop in the Shopping Center, and you can begin with black-stitched white duck and move on to lined Madras, washed with a narrow string, and continue to good old blue denim. Prices are in the $7.95 range, some above, some below.

Madras appears in a new dress, Bailey's Madras dress has the usual skirt construction, but a surprise when you get to the middle, a lowered waistband before the skirt breaks.

A new bathing suit follows the same low line, with a low, white band marking the plumb line between linen green top and turquoise pants. The fabric is one of those stretch things, and there is a very low back, but not quite so low as the waistline.

The two pieces in a deconstruction for Indianapolis if you visit ensemble consist of narrowly pleated full skirt and sleeveless halter-neck blouse. There is a powder blue one, a light yellow, and a sage green, all $10.95 for the two pieces.

Bailey's has a pleasingly large collection of sleeveless, fitted, halter-necked tank-in-blouses, some plain, some done in a tapestry fabric, others barely striped in red, white,

blue or yellow.

You never can tell, but just in case, you might examine the grey raincoat, with deep round collar, patch pockets, cing-shield belt and zip-front. There is white top-stitching and a casual, if rainy, air. Price is $19.95.

Join the 20 million families who won a BUDGET BATTLE

In the past 10 years, more than 20 million loans were made to American families who borrowed from HFC with a purpose! Some arranged their loans for emergencies—to pay bills or cover medical and dental expenses. Others borrowed to make home improvements or to go on a real vacation. All borrowed with confidence because of the fair, understanding assistance they received at Household Finance. You can, too.

Cease Dilly-Dallying.

To the Editor of Town Topics: Princeton has just gone through a memorable month. Surely there has not been a 30-day period in the last decade when so many fundamental and interrelated questions bearing on the future of Princeton have been brought to public attention. Ideas and plans are presented and we get a sense of impending decisions on a variety of important matters.

Except one—the most important of all, to which all others relate: the fact-finding study on full municipal consolidation. Here there is a deafening silence from our town fathers. Where is the leadership they were elected to supply?

In the case of the Township, the lead obviously has been taken by our School Board, we should be eternally grateful to that body for having raised in timely fashion and in straightforward language one of the basic issues in consolidation. "Taxation without representation" for the Township with respect to the high school.

I wish to ask our two municipal governing bodies how they feel about the dilly-dallying on the consolidation study. The effect of their procrastination is to deny the citizens of Princeton something that is rightfully theirs: the facts on which a consolidation would mean, laid out in a clear and dispassionate study.

I refer Mayor and Council and Township Committee to the plan I submitted to them for a study of consolidation—dated February 8, 1962. Now that they have had 3 months to read these 7 1/2 pages, I urge them to put it into operation or to propose a better plan if they have one. And believe me, no other more pressing business. This is the paramount problem on Princeton's agenda in 1962—in May, not December, of 1962.

May I illustrate the urgency? The thrust of the Township School Board's recent letter, quite obviously, is that unless the Township shares on full equality with the Borough in managing the high school, a separate Township high school must appear a preferable alternative within a few years. And where would the Township build that high school?

Only two sites are large enough, central enough, and "in the heart" of the town. One is the site of the old Route 206 Community Park, and the other is the site of the old Princeton College tract. The latter was not intended for school use and I firmly believe should not be further invaded for school purposes. That leaves the Community Park tract, which lies in the Township and which the Borough is poised to acquire for its own school purposes.

This strikes me as a situation sufficiently threatening to the future well-being of Princeton that the town fathers will be in upon default of their responsibility to provide leadership if they do not move immediately to resolve the complexity of this situation. We must have the fact-finding study on consolidation and until it is completed a moratorium on all moves that would tend to narrow our range of future possibilities.

Alumna Gives Support.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

I would like to help the Princeton High School Choir make its trip abroad next month and I am enclosing a check to add to the travel fund.

I understand that this choir is the only high school organization approved by the U. S. Cultural Exchange Committee for a foreign appearance, and I am proud to be an alumna of a school which can boast of such an accomplishment.

Although I have been asked to give to other schools and to my college, and have done so for many years, I have never done anything for the high school that gave me such a fine education. I am happy to give at this time when there is such a need.

Defeat "Total Restralt."

The dog hater of the Township can take pride in the "Total Restralt" ordinance passed on first reading on April 23. It does not make dog ownership illegal, merely impractical.

The text is available at Township Hall. I urge all dog lovers to read it.

This is a reasonable measure only if you consider the mere presence of a dog somewhere, not on his own property as a danger to the community. It is reasonable if you think all dog bites are equal, without consideration of severity or provocation.

Is $20,000 for a dog pound to accommodate only 25 to 30 dogs a fair price? How about the $10,000 annual maintenance?

Let's apply some common sense to this problem. First, the elaborate rules regarding rules are too lenient for a vicious animal and too extreme for an ordinary dog.

What constitutes a bite? It is not defined. At least two of the bites reported recently did not even break the skin!

A puppy will nip in the heat of a romp until he is taught to be careful. This is normal, not vicious, but two such incidents make the dog a "lifer" and the third sentence him to death.

What about the child who maliciously teases a dog? Must he be protected by the government from the consequences of his folly? Is the responsibility of the child in self-defense? I would not deny the child his lesson nor the dog his instinctive reaction.

What about the practical problems of making a country dog live by city rules? How do you explain to a dog chasing a rabbit that he must stop at a hedge line or flower bed? Tethering will ruin him as a pet.

Requiring nearly 1000 dog owning families to fence their land or give up the fact that pet is an unreasonable hardship both financially and in its effect on the appearance of the community. Surely nobody moves to the country to keep his dog in the house at all times.

A TING OF BEAUTY isn't always a joy forever, according to former President Eisenhower, who deplored the ascendancy of the "twist" over the minut and modern art over more (left) and Bill Bovino support the former president's contention that beauty, morality and decency in America are declining. (Staff Photo)

Question of the Week

Question: Former President Eisenhower, speaking at the dedication of the Eisenhower Library in Abilene last week, said that the American concepts of beauty, morality, and decency were declining. As examples, he cited modern art and the "twist" dance craze. Do you agree with him? Where asked. Around town.

Michael Flatter, N. Main Street, Hightstown, clerk at Hill's Market: I agree with him. People seem to be getting along with the old tried and true ways of decency and morality. Everybody seems to want to cut up, to try something new.

William Bovino, Brunswick Pike, clerk, Hill's Market: I think Eisenhower is right. I think the twist is stupid. I think there has been a decline in the morals of the country. Since that almost everything is declining. Everybody's looking out for themselves. Maybe there is just too much tension in the world today.

Keneth Harnick, Sanhian Drive, Trenton, lab technician, Department of Chemistry, Princeton University: I would say they aren't declining any more than they did when Eisenhower was a teenager himself. They had dances then that look just as weird to us as the twist does to them. As far as modern art goes, if you understand it, then there is some benefit you derive from it. Beauty and morality are controversial things and Eisenhower has given what amounts to just one opinion.

Mrs. Michael Pinell, Alexander Road, Princeton Junction, housewife: No, I think people are becoming more broad-minded - it's not that our decency and morals are declining. We have the twist and we have the modern art because people want them. I think that is the way young people are expressing themselves today. I can remember they thought much the same of the Charleston when it first came out as they do the twist. I think Eisenhower is wrong. At least I hope he is.

Mrs. Albert Whitehead, Stockton Road, housewife: No, I don't agree with him. I just think he's getting old.

Nicholas Dertouzos, 258 Hawthorne Avenue, pastor, chief, Theological Seminary: I certainly do agree with him. I believe the general decline in morals is due to the fact that children are not under the supervision of their parents. They get their own way nowadays, regardless of what their parents say. They aren't disciplined enough and that is the root of the thing. Children have too much and they say much of this. I've seen many examples of this.

Mrs. George Noble, Jr., Hightstown Road, Cranbury housewife: I do and I don't agree with Eisenhower. There is some ugliness and immorality today, but I feel they are published out of proportion. There is too much of a hullabaloo made over every new thing and fad that comes along. I don't think our morals and decency have changed noticeably for the worse. Things could get a lot worse than they are, in my opinion.

William Levine, 35 Hamilton Avenue, retired from automobile parts business: I do indeed. From my own observation I can see a decline in people who objectively look at beauty with an eye for appreciating and understanding it. Who today takes time to look at cherry blossoms in bloom or dogwood? They are taken for granted. People have lost their sense of appreciation for beauty. A folk dance is a thing of beauty. Do you think the twist is?

Melvin Wittler, 38 Alexander Street, graduate student, Oriental Studies: I think not. I think they're quite different. Modern art necessitates a view not primarily from the point of view of decency and morality, but from the point of view of the concept of the artist. I'm not sure the twist dance is an art.

Mrs. Helga D. Eisler, Harris Road, Princeton Junction, registered nurse: In some ways, he's right. I think the people's concept of beauty, morality and decency are becoming more common rather than refined; common in the sense of vulgarity. As far as the twist dance craze, you'll always have silly fad crazes.

Harold Waage, 17 Leavitt Lane, physicist: I'm inclined to disagree with Eisenhower. I don't equate modern art and the twist with questions of morality and decency. But I do agree modern art is more of a fad than anything else. They talk about understanding it but it is more a question of everybody getting on the bandwagon. It is declining to the point where everybody can do it. Art is no longer done for its own sake but for how much it will bring in the market place. I don't think our concepts of morality, beauty and decency are declining. I think they are just changing.

Joseph Stemmler, 142 Moore Street, Trenton State student: No, I think he's a little too idealistic. I think you have to consider the times and how they've changed. Through technological advances, people have more leisure and they have to expend their energies on things like that. In the depression, people expended their energy on the Charleston.

Robert E. Buckner, 26 Witherspoon Street, assistant chief of maintenance, Institute for Advanced Study: No, I don't agree. In the first place, I work at the Institute for Advanced Study where some of the finest minds in the world are meeting to promote fine art, literature and the like, so I don't see where our standards of art and beauty have been lowered. As far as the twist is concerned, I was brought up in the era of the jitterbug, and they considered

that pretty wild and we have survived that.

Mrs. John S. Wilson, Griggstown, housewife: No, I don't agree with him at all. What's the difference between the twist and the Charleston? I feel the same theory is behind both. The twist will pass and I certainly don't agree with him on modern art. When Cezanne and Picasso started everyone was up in arms, saying they had broken with tradition. You have to have this experimentation in literature and all the arts. It all levels out after a while.

Ruby Shaney, Graduate Student, mechanical engineering
No, because in every era you have the same thing. They said the era was declining
when the Charleston appeared,
and they said the same thing
later about rock and roll. Art is always modern for the period in which it was made.

Mailbox

Eventually a gate will be left open and Fido will be off
he would then be subject to being hauled off to the pound for the crime of sleeping on a public street or neighbor's lawn. Incidentally, calling a hound a "shelter" doesn't alter the fact that the inmates are all under a tentative death sentence.

In spite of the hysterical opposition to even trying modern controls, the ordinance
should be defeated. It is obviously absurd to apply rules
like this to rural areas and the argument that it could not be enforced in some parts of the Township proves my point. If it cannot or should not be enforced as written, it must be a mistake like the Prohibition Law.

Let's defeat the "anti-dog"
law by signing one of the petitions for introduction of the moderate ordinance, by writing to the Township Commissioners, and by attending the public hearing on May 31.

Hiding In The Dark.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
This is the time of the year
when many of our fellow citizens (and citizenesses) go into hiding.
Perhaps they don't realize
why some of their friends and acquaintances fall, all of a sudden, to nod or wave or acknowledge a greeting. Probably they think it's the fault of someone who is trying to shun
them or "high-tail" them.

Someone passes me in their car and waves, and I stand
there trying to pierce the masquerade, the new appearance,
the altered physiognomy. No
I feel a wave in puzzled response but probably too late for the passing driver to see.
Then a week later I may hear "I waved to you on Nassau Street last Monday but you didn't wave back—so you didn't want to ignore your old friends?"

I still try to be friendly, and my eyesight is as good as usual, so I'll clue you, friends.
You can see fairly well I thought them, but I have to try to figure out who is hiding
behind those dark glasses.

If you are wearing tinted prescription glasses, I have a chance of recognizing you, but if you are wearing seal prescribed sun glasses of considerable size and just deny that then your appearance is greatly altered.

Maybe by August I'll begin
to recognize your new appearance, but by then you may have stopped waving at me altogether. Then it will be my turn to say, "I saw you pass me on Nassau Street last—"

Heart Fund Reports.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
Thanks to the splendid reporting of Town Topics and the work of dozens of volunteers throughout the Princeton area, the 1962 Heart Fund campaign was a success. Although not all of the returns
are in, we feel sure that the total for Princeton in 1962
will more than double last year's figure.

More will live because our Princeton area residents gave so generously to this worthy cause. Through the efforts of your newspaper, they know that more than 10 million men,
women and children are affected today by some form of heart or circulatory disease...
that more than 500,000 school-
age children and young adults
suffer from rheumatic fever
and rheumatic heart disease...
that thousands of babies are born each year with heart defects... that one out of every two deaths in the United States... more than 800,000
each year... is caused by diseases of the heart and blood vessels... and that about one-fourth of these deaths occur in the 45-64 age group,
the "prime of life."

And through you, they know that since 1948 The Heart Association has invested $65,000
in research which has paid off.
Today, our doctors know
how to stop rheumatic fever
and rheumatic heart disease.
They can control high blood pressure in many cases. They can do a better job of treating strokes. They can operate inside the heart and do miracles in correcting inborn heart defects. Most heart attack victims recover and go back to work.

They also know that in Mercer County alone, more than 100
rheumatic fever patients are receiving daily medication paid
for by the Heart dollars.
Many of these patients would require this medication for the balance of their lives.

On behalf of the Mercer County Heart Association, I want to extend you, our devoted army of volunteers and to all the residents of the Princeton area our deep appreciation for your whole-hearted and valued support.
We look forward to your continued help in bringing to the people throughout Mercer County the latest knowledge about the heart diseases made possible through their support of the Heart Fund.
Benjamin K. Silverman, M.D.
President

Move Approved.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
I should like publicly to commend the members of the Sevier Operating Committee
and the mayors of both the Township and the Borough for their prompt action in adopting the proposal I offered in my open letter of April 12 for a solution to the present sewer emergency. This same action was recommended over two years ago by the engineering survey.

The increase in pumping capacity and the adding of main lines into and out of the pumps will certainly solve the immediate problem, and also this improvement has the advantage of providing for the future growth of all Princeton

To people
OVER 65
and to their sons and daughters

Metropolitan has developed a new series of policies covering expense of hospitalization which will be issued at all ages 65 and over. These policies can mean a great deal to the peace of mind of senior citizens and their families in time of need brought about by age or sickness.

The premiums on these policies may be paid by the elder people themselves—or by their children who may have the ultimate responsibility for hospital bills. And —under present income tax laws, these premiums are treated as medical expenses of the taxpayer or his dependents for purposes of income tax deductions.

If you would like further information on Metropolitan's
new Senior Citizens Policies, write or phone:

SMITH ALUMNAE ELECT

New Officers. Mrs. Richard H. Sly has been elected president of the Smith College Club for a one-year term, succeeding Mrs. Elizabeth R. Moriarty. Officers named to two-year terms are Mrs. Dwight O. North, treasurer; Mrs. James J. Reed, fund representative, and Mrs. Charles Strout, Jr., chairman of the Student Contact committee.

Receiving one-year terms are Mrs. Joan E. Biles, auction chairman; Mrs. Thomas C. Jamieson, Jr., assistant auction chairman; Mrs. Raymond W.

Mitchell, raffle chairman; Mrs. Lucius Wilmerding, III, assistant raffle chairman; and Mrs. Glen B. Miller, Jr., news letter editor.

Continuing in office for a second year are Miss Florence H. Snow, vice-president; Mrs. Peter Baunacker, of Trenton, vice-president for Trenton; Mrs. John P. Talbot, secretary; Mrs. Theodore G. Kane, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Fredrick L. Ferris, Jr. of Pennington, publicity chairman; Mrs. Frederick G. Hasweller of Pennington, scholarship chairman; and Mrs. James R. Caserly, Student Aid Society representative.

MORE VISITING HOURS

For New Fathers. Under a new policy announced by Princeton Hospital, husbands of new mothers may visit their wives at any time in the Maternity Department, with two exceptions. The major change, approved by doctors of the hospital's Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, will become effective immediately. The new rule means that husbands may stay with their wives as long after 9 p.m. as they wish and may visit them in the morning before 7:30. Exceptions include the time when infants are with their mothers and from 7:30 to 11 in the morning, when routine morning care is conducted. As in the past, only two persons may visit at one time, with the second visitor still subject to the original visiting hours, 12 noon to 3. The liberalization of maternity hours follows shortly a similar move by doctors to permit parents of children in pediatrics to visit them any time, day or night.

PLAN ROAST BEEF DINNER

And Dance. The Griggstown Volunteer Fire Company will hold its annual country-style roast beef dinner on May 19 from 5 to 8 with Douglas Millgram as chairman. A dance will start at 9, featuring the Caravans of Trenton.

Committee chairman assisting are Steven Virokski, kitchen; Donald Rocknak, waiters; and Ernest Camp, dance committee.

GARDEN CLUB TO MEET

On Thursday, The Dogwood Garden Club will hold its annual meeting at 1:30 Thursday in the home of Mrs. Carl Sjoström, Grovers Mill Road, Cranbury.

New officers will be elected and plans made for the garden club tent under the chairmanship of Mrs. Philip Shays, at the Princeton Hospital Hotel.

The members have arranged to tour Longwood Garden, Kennett Square, Pa., on May 21 to see the Arboretum and flower gardens, the Italian Water Garden and the conservatory. The picnic is included, and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Paul Johnston, 140 Littlebrook Road, Cranbury.

SPORTS In Princeton

TITLES ON THE LINE

In Lacrosse and Tennis. Facing their traditional opponent, Yale, in climatic contests this weekend, Princeton teams will be in a position to assure themselves of successful defense of their titles in lacrosse and tennis. Both events will begin at 2:30. Ferris Thomson's operatives playing on Finney Field and John Conroy's racquet squad deploying on the courts between Duffon Gym and Baker Hall.

A third Yale team will also be in action here, the Eli nine playing an Eastern Baseball League game with Princeton on Clarke Field at 2:30. Nothing is at stake here, other than an effort on the part of both entries to escape second division finishes.

Harvard Easily Beaten. The 9-0 victory which the tennis team recorded over Harvard Saturday at Cambridge was unusual in light of the Crimson's consistent strength in the sport, but it was none too surprising in view of the ability and depth Conroy's squad has again this season. Yale, a stronger opponent, does not figure to bar the Tigers' path to a second straight championship.

Princeton's 12-7 victory over Yale can hardly be classed as an upset in view of the Orange and Black's domination of the Ivy League for the past five years, but the ease with which the triumph was accomplished on the Cranston home field was something of an eye-opener. Harvard had handled its other opponents in impressive fashion, had shown a steady attack and an impressive defense.

Some solace was provided for the Tigers in their victory over Harvard (by about eight feet), with Rutgers fourth. Hope for the future was provided by the triumph of the Princeton freshmen, who led Rutgers across the line by almost two lengths. The Scarlet first-year haul was the only one to defeat Pete Sparhawk's veterans this season.

Harvard won the 150-lb. race, with Penn's second-place finish good enough to take the Wood Hammund Cup from Princeton. Of the afternoon's seven races, the only one that fell to Princeton, was the heavyweight freshman event.

Carnegie Cup at Stake. The long stretch (10 years) since Princeton last won the Carnegie Cup is expected to be lengthened Saturday at Derby, Conn., when the Tigers row against strong Yale and Cornell crews. The outcome of the race is a good deal of a toss-up, with the Elis unbeaten in three races and Cornell showing fine form in topping Navy and Syracuse in its opener last weekend.

Any finish above third for Princeton will rate as a distinct upset. This, too, is the picture in the Goldthwait Cup for which Harvard, Yale and Princeton 150-lb. crews will row on Lake Carnegie.

The Crimson is the likely winner over the Henry distance of a mile and 5-16ths, with Yale a possible victor. Three races will be rowed among the freshmen, jayvees and varsity shells, the first at 4:30 and the others following at 15-minute intervals.

ALL TEAM FACES YALE
Tigers Well Below .500. Beaten in 10 of its first 17 games this season, Princeton's baseball team will play host to Yale Saturday at 2:30 on Clarke Field. The last time the two teams met, on a weekend in 1961, the Tigers' new diamond was fittingly dedicated by a 9-6 victory which saw Eddie Donovan's team push across four runs after two were out in the last of the ninth.

Short of first-line pitching and consistent hitting, Princeton is unlikely to break even this year, or to finish out of second division in the Eastern League. An opportunity to did not quite have the stamina to hold their slim lead ahead by as much as a length at the mile mark, they were caught as a still wind ruffled the water and eventually trailed the victors by as much as three-quarters of a length.

Yale is the choice to win the Heptagonal title, which will be decided at Dartmouth for the first time since the meet was staged a quarter century ago. The Elis' well-balanced team pulverized Princeton at New Haven last week, 94 to 53, the Tigers winning only the quarter and half mile in the track events, and the hammer and pole vault in the field.

Five years ago, under Raymond Phillips as its first president, the Little League was granted its franchise by the nation-wide organization of the same name which has its headquarters in Williamsport, Pa. Interest mounted steadily, and a fifth team joined the circuit in 1959 and this spring, six will play.

Team managers and sponsors are J. "Bud" Wetterling, American Cyanamid; Guy Watlington, C. Page; Harold Fleming, First National Bank; "Iggy" McHugh, West Windsor Lions; Wendell Reacher, Craft Cleaners; and Tom Green-

In connection with Little League Day on the 27th, Mayor Rozsa has called attention to a proclamation to the township's desire "to show its appreciation of the enthusiasm, comradeship, good sportsmanship and spirit of cooperation which the Little League program has engendered in the participating youth of our municipality." Each team manager will supervise a section of the baseball field for fund-raising purposes, and all boys, in uniform, will make house-to-house calls.

PHS ENTERS 3 TEAMS
In Long Branch Relays.
Princeton High School will enter three relay teams in the Long Branch Relays to be held Saturday in the coastal community. Qualifying trials are scheduled to start at 11.

Little Tiger coach Jerry Groninger said he plans to

In the 120-yard high hurdle shuttle race, two runners are stationed at each end and "shutt'e" back and forth. Competing for PHIS will be four of these five: George Russo, William Aiken, Roger Slayback, Peter Highburger and William Kruger.

The race that Princeton High is pointing to and stands the best chance of capturing is the medley relay. This is the one we are planning on," reported Groninger. The medley consists of the 220, quarter, half and mile. Bogia will run the 220, Bensinger, the half, Art Riddler or Jim Norris the quarter and Hank Schmidt, the mile. "A lot will depend on how well Hank does in the mile," said Groninger.

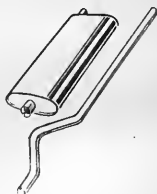

Monday afternoon at 3:45, the Little Tigers will play host to Somerville High School in a dual meet. The home team will be seeking its third victory in five meets.

Ewing Triumphs. Unbeaten Ewing High dropped the Little Tigers to the .500 mark Friday afternoon when it defeated the visiting Blue and White, 64 2/3 to 52 3/5. Co-captain Tom Eogia led the losers with

WE Congratulate

WERR HARRISON
Lacrosse Goalie

Ferris Thomsen, whose Princeton lacrosse team has won five straight Ivy titles, wasn't at all sure about a sixth this year. The big reason: his standout goalie, Howie Krongard, had graduated after three seasons on the varsity, the last two with all-Ivy ranking and an All-American as a senior.

Early last winter, sophomore Webb Harrison decided to forego hockey in favor of baseball this spring. But before the verbal equine had arrived, he had reported for lacrosse, and today he is a big reason why that sixth straight title is within reach. Although he had never played the sport before, the highly-versatile Princeton native is Thomsen's varsity goalie.

A life-long resident of this community, Harrison won four letters (football, hockey, baseball, tennis) at Princeton Country Day. From there, he went to Annapolis, where he played varsity football, hockey and baseball in his Lower Middle (senior) year. He earned all-England honors as a halfback in football and co-captained one of the Blue's strongest hockey teams.

At Princeton, his varsity athletic career began with all-Ivy rating in soccer, an early ICD sport to which he returned because the rigors of college football are incompatible with his relatively light build (160 lbs.) and his constant concentration on matters academic.

It was lacrosse-playing season. Friends who persuaded Harrison to switch his choice of spring sports. His haplism of fine was as rugged as if he were playing safety-man in football against Oklahoma, Ohio State, L.S.U. and Notre Dame—the first four or five games on Princeton's lacrosse schedule are always against nationally-ranked lacrosse powers.

The rough going has paid off steadily. Thomsen reports: "In the 12-7 victory over Harvard, which drew the largest crowd at Cambridge in the history of the sport, Webb not only played his last game but gained steadily in confidence. He'll better every pipe, and against Harvard, he sure stopped some pipes."

Harrison's speed and agility are the foremost factors responsible for his unprecedented success... in his decade and a half as a varsity player, he has never before known of a goalie to achieve varsity status in his first year of lacrosse. Just ahead lie Cornell and Yale, and Webb Harrison, who a few weeks ago was known of lacrosse only as another story in the Sunday sports pages, will watch the game from the goalie's cage—the hottest spot of all.

victories in the 100 and 220-yard events.

Other first place winners for PHS included Bruce Baxter, 1.4 mile; Gary Mount, shot; and Bill Brooks, broad jump. Ewing won the eight remaining events.

Two future PHS track performers excelled in the first Junior Chamber of Commerce track meet for junior high school boys held Saturday in Trenton, coach Groninger reported. They are Andrew Kulley and Bill Aiken, who placed first in the shot and 100-yard low hurdles, respectively.

Kulley's 47" loss of the eight-pound shot was a good four feet beyond anyone else. Groninger said they would have to look Kulley's effort up in the school records as he felt it represented a new record or close to it. Aiken won the hurdle event in the fine time of 12.2 seconds.

five-point bulge over Nassau Service (44) to the Industrial League, with Para Lab Supply (42) and the Crests (40) following. Physics (75) maintained a five-point margin over Accelerator (70) in the Faculty League. Engineering holding third place with 64 points. Conover Motors (92) was four points better than Cranbury Bank in the Women's League; Nassau Del (69) and Amron Homes (64) were not far off the pace. In the Women's Industrial League, Nassau Service followed by Decker's Dairy (76) and Gale Clearcos (72.)

Dick Edwards' 236 was the high game for the week, but a member of the Women's League, Carol Harris, was second with 232 as part of a 500 series. Other good men's scores included Nick Sculzelli, 225; Harry Kahny, 216; Dave Crompton, 211; Wally Brown, 210, and four at 204: Joe Trani, Mike Zeccola, Dave Burrough and Jerry Perpetua.

Among the women, Julia Marcolini bowled 182, Marilyn Murphy, 181, and Liz Brown, 180. Marilyn Murphy completed a 7-3-10 split.

PHIS TRACKMEN LOSE

To Highland Park. Visiting Princeton High School lost its third dual meet against two victories Monday when it was defeated by Highland Park 64½ to 52½. The meet was originally scheduled for April 13 but was rained out.

Little Tiger co-captain Tom Bogala continued his supremacy in the 100 and 200 yard events winning both for the fourth time this season. Co-captain Joe Cox won the 400 yard for the losers and placed second in the shot Ted Pisciotta won both the low and high hurdles events and tied for first in the high jump to pace Highland Park, which won its second of three dual meets.

LITTLE TIGERS DROP TWO
To Skid To 1-6. In its last two games, the Princeton High School baseball team has hung out a total of six hits and scored three runs.

As a result of their ineptness behind the plate, the Little Tigers were beaten easily by Ewing Friday and again on Monday by Hunt from Central.

The scores were 3-5, and 4-1.

The twin losses were the fifth and sixth in seven games for the Blue and White.

In addition to not being able to hit the ball, Coach Harry Zoll's players helped beat themselves in still another way; they couldn't handle it either. In the Ewing encounter, usually reliable Jack Walstad committed three errors at shortstop. Against Hunterdon, infield team captain and third baseman Teddy Skarr were charged with four bobbles, each on leading to a

In earlier games a weak pitching effort had led to Princeton High's downfall. But Jim Quinn, in going the distance against Hunterdon, pitched the best game of any PHIS pitcher to date.

He issued only one walk and struck out five, in giving up seven hits. It was only the second time a Little Tiger hurler has gone all the way. Quinn also accounted for the first time, defeating Trenton Catholic for the school's lone victory.

The visitor's only run came in the third inning on a single by Walstad and a triple by Ray Britton, that tied the score at 1-1. Britton's blow enabled him to keep alive his record of having hit safely in all seven PHIS contests. He is the team's leading hitter. That was to be the only bright note for the losers, however.

After reaching Quins for a single run in the first inning on an error, a walk and a single by Steve Bush, the home team added solo runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Time helped along by a misplay. It marked the first time that Hunterdon has beaten a PHIS nine.

On Friday, PHIS started out strongly against once-beaten Trenton. The visiting Blue and White scored both its runs in the first inning on a walk, Britton's double and an error.

After that, however, Ewing's Bob Terlecki pitched two-hit ball, giving up singles to Paul Walstad and Tom Vitz.

The home team tied the score in the fifth and went ahead in the next frame when it scored three runs off reliever Tom Stemmle. The big blow was a three-run homer by Steve Bush, which gave the team a 3-2 lead.

The Little Tigers will try to get untracked Friday at the expense of Trenton Catholic and again on Tuesday against Stenort. Both games will be played at Harris Field, Princeton High's home diamond. Scoring time for each game is 3:30.

BY DOUBLE DEFEAT. "The biggest upset of our lives" is the way Tim School baseball coach Sanford Bird described it. He was referring to the highly-unexpected, almost unbelievable 10-7 defeat Bryn Athyn administrators to his previously unbeaten team Friday which was followed by an equally unexpected 7-6 loss to Solebury Monday afternoon.

We beat these teams by 25 runs last year and they have practically the same team back and so do we," exclaimed the frustrated Bing. The 1961 scores were 12-3 and 13-0, underlining how sharp the unexpected reversal in form was.

Even time was against the Red and Black in Monday's contest. The game was late in starting and both coaches agreed to play only five innings. Hun, behind by six runs in the last of the fifth, had rallied and scored five runs and had the bases loaded but captain Paul Savidge hit out to end it.

"We just ran into some bad breaks in the third inning," reported Bing. Solebury scored all seven of its runs in that inning. "Some walks, a couple of errors, some fluky hits that just dropped in, some bad judgment in cut off plays from the outfield and before you knew it, we were down, 7-0," added Bing.

Hun beat itself, however. "We were guilty of sloppy baserunning and too many errors," said Bing. "I'd say we had four actual errors but we had many more errors of omission." Another thorn in Hun's side was the absence of starting first baseman Les Langel and starting second baseman Al Staller. "The whole right side of my infield was gone," lamented Bing.

Schnall Starts. Mike Schnall, a junior, started on the mound for the first time for Hun. He did very well, according to Bing, until he ran into error trouble by his teammates. Guy Wirsig of Princeton, who relieved Schnall, suffered from the same lack of support from the field. Veteran Frank "Smokie" Black finished up.

Hun's version of the comedy of errors was even more painful in the Bryn Athyn game. The visiting Red and Black committed eight miscues and permitted the home team to score seven unearned runs. "You can't win playing like that," said Bing in a statement.

Once again Hun missed the services of Langel and Staller. "We just couldn't get a sustained attack going," said Bing. "We were striking out and popping up something we haven't done this season. But I'm not making any excuses. We lost primarily because we played sloppy, careless ball."

Actually, after Bryn Athyn sported to a 7-0 lead in the third, Hun came back to score three in the fourth and two in the fifth on the hitting of Black, Savidge, Dave Penrose and pitcher Larry Hagerly.

The losers' six hits were only one less than the total garnered by Bryn Athyn. Hagerly pitched a good game, but suffered from the loose playing of his teammates. The twin loss dropped Hun to 3-2.

Bing reported he expects his team to be at full strength again on Saturday when Hun will oppose Delbarton, the only team to defeat Hun last year, on its home diamond. Wednesday.

DAR TO MEET

At "Rockingham," Washington's headquarters, at Rocky Hill, "Rockingham" will be the scene on May 17 of the annual meeting of the Princeton Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. The Board members will meet at 11 a.m. and the general membership will assemble at 11:30 to hear annual reports, to be followed by a box luncheon.

A slate of officers will be presented. Nominated for three-year terms are Mrs. Albert C. Cornish, regent; Mrs. Joseph B. Wood, secretary; Mrs. Irving W. Merston, chaplain; Mrs. Roger T. Lyman, recording secretary; Mrs. Irl O. Baird, corresponding secretary; Miss Mildred Innes, treasurer; Mrs. Charles D. Deyre, registrar; Miss Genevieve C. Cobb, historian and Mrs. Alfred C. S. Baird, librarian.

Hostesses for the session will be Mrs. Joseph G. Gorman and Miss Edith B. Margerum.

WHAT'S ON THE MENU?

Itam! Members of the Princeton Junction Volunteer Fire Company No 1 will serve a ham dinner next Sunday, May 20, at the Fire House on Alexander Road.

Servings will be held from 3 to 6 at $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12. Contributions may still be made to the fund drive through Robert J. Servis, Harris Road, Princeton Junction.

FUND RESULTS GIVEN

For Student Loans. Contributions to the Elizabeth Taylor Byrd Memorial Fund reached $322, according to an announcement this week from the executive committee of the fund.

Miss Joan Hill, 143 Witherspoon, received a grant from the Fund of $100 toward her expenses at Central State College, where she is a business education student.

United funds will be deposited in an interest-bearing account to form the nucleus of a loan fund for qualified Princeton students in academic or vocational work.

The Fund was established in November, 1960. A Mad-Hatters Ball will be given in the fall to raise additional money, and in the meantime, contributions may be sent to Mrs. Grace Wright, 114 Dempsey Avenue.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

By Vassar Club. Officers for the coming year were elected

The "Open Door" policy of the Princeton United Community Fund was reaffirmed this week with an invitation from the Fund to welfare agencies who might be interested in applying for Fund membership.

"The United Fund cannot force any agency to join in the federated fund-raising," a Fund spokesman said, "but in the interest of the public, the Fund once again indicates the 'Open Door' policy and seeks the cooperation of all people in bringing about a unified, once-a-year campaign and thus eliminating the duplication of time, effort and money which could then be devoted to service for all people."

In reviewing the application of an agency, the United Fund must be satisfied that the agency provides a needed service and renders it effectively.

by the Vassar Club of Central New Jersey at the annual spring meeting of the group held last week.

Mrs. Hanford A. Farnum will be vice-president and Mrs. Frederick Lawrence, secretary. Mrs. Frederick Gallagher will be publicity chairman and Mrs. K. Dexter Miller, chairman of scholarships and prospective students. Mrs. Ralph Peters and Mrs. Karl Pettit, Jr., will be co-chairmen of the annual Scholarship Ball. The annual tea for prospective students will be held Tuesday, May 22, at the home of Mrs. Robert F. Goheen.

CAMP DIRECTOR NAMED

By Girl Scouts. Mrs. J. A. Buckland, of 36 Stanley Avenue, has been appointed director of the day camp of the Princeton Girl Scout Council. The day camp will be held from 9 until 3 at Camp Tamarack, Autum Hill Road, from June 25 through July 6.

Registration is open to all second through eighth grade girls of Princeton and vicinity. The program will emphasize outdoor living, camp crafts and will feature daily cook-outs. Campers will be divided into groups according to age, school grade and camping experience. Each unit will be directed by a unit leader, assisted by a senior Girl Scout Aide. The staff will also include craft instructors and a nurse.

Applications are available through Girl Scout troop leaders and at the Princeton Girl Scout office, 4 Green Street. The fee for the two-week session, including bus transportation and insurance, is $18. Additional information may be obtained from the Scout office. WA 4-5815, or from Mrs. Buckland, WA 1-6535.

News Of The CHURCHES

SEMINARY STRIDES
After Sequel Opens
Princeton Theological Seminary
rested quietly on the lawn
this week. The opening lectures of its sesquicentennial
brought an unprecedented multitude of crowds, eager to hear the world-famous leaders of Christian thought. The lecturers are wearing, but gratified.

Some 25,000 tickets have been issued in advance by the Rev.
Ray Plautsch, director of the sesquicentennial, and an unprecedented number was given out daily at the doors of the lecture halls. Attendance was so great that audiences turned away from the University Chapel, heard the lectures by public address system from seats in Miller Chapel and the Campus Center auditorium.

Karl Barth was heard by 12,
000 people, many of them coming back for each lecture. The morning talks by W. A. Visser
t Hooft, general secretary of the World Council of Churches, and by D. T. Niles, general secretary of the East Asia Christian Conference, were heard by an estimated 1,600 to 1,800 listeners at each session.
Other morning lectures were attended by 800 to 1,200 daily.
The audience came from everywhere—from Iowa, California, Texas, Louisiana, Canada, Sweden.
Some committed daily from New York or Trenton or Philadelphia. Many were foreign students and clergy in this country for a term of study. About 500 were housed throughout the town and were stayed in Trenton. The Seminary served an average of 150
extra persons at mealtime during the lecture period.

Turn about, the speakers
were stimulated and delighted by their audiences. Dr. Visser
t Hooft was particularly impressed by the number of religious denominations and viewpoints represented. Dr. Barth,
rugged fighter that he is,
commented, "Princeton is an attractive place in the competitive lack of challenge."
The Seminary feels that Princeton may need a larger lecture hall for its 200th Anniversary.

AFRICAN "PALAVER" Set For Monday. The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church will hold a "Palaver Concerning Women"
in the New Nations of Africa
at 8 p.m. Monday.
The word "palaver" was first used by Portuguese explorers
to describe gatherings of African tribal chiefs where matters of importance were discussed, the Association noted.

Mrs. William Cuffman is coordinator with Mrs. C. S. Billimer of the Women's Association.
She will consider such questions as the place of women in the history of Africa, how the church should deal with polygamy, the role of the educated African woman, and ways in which the African woman might be helped with her problems.

Serving as palaver chiefs
will be Mrs. Billimer, Mrs.
Horton Davies, Mrs. Walter
Gibson, Mrs. Bruce Vanant.

Srs. William Dyer, Mrs. William Voorhees.

Other members taking part in the meeting are Mrs. John Baumgartner, Mrs. George
Loof, Mrs. Harwick Johnson,
Mrs. Dean Chase, Mrs. Mary Wilcox.

Mrs. Fred Bowers, of Circle
Four, is in charge of the social hour which will follow the session.

TERMS TO BEGIN
For Elders, Deacons, Ordination and installation of elders
and deacons of the First Presbyterian Church will take place on Sunday, the Rev. Dr.
Donald M. Meisel, pastor, has announced.

The new elders and deacons
will be guests of honor at the reception and buffet supper at 6 on Sunday, at the church.
Dr. Edward Goffrey, chairman of the Board of Deacons, will preside. The speaker will be the Rev. Richard Gilbert, secretary of communications in the Department of Evangelism, Board of National Missions.

Nominated as elders are: Elmer E. Chase, William K. Evans, James Fitzpatrick, Elwood W. Goffrey, Mrs. David Baumgartner, Arthur L. Leonard, Moore, Russell N. Mount, Mrs. Frederick Nicoll
and Stanley C. Smokey.

Deacons named are: Paul T. Bortell, Jr., Dean W. Chase, Charles W. Cornforth, William B. Duryee, Benjamin M. Foote, Jr., E. B. Garrettson, Willard Hamilton, Richard Howard James, A. Kerr, William W. Marvel, Matthew B. Maxwell, Lewis G. Merrill, Jr., Dean E. Meyerson, Lawrence F. Willis and F. Thomas Wilson. James T. Richmond, Jr., was chairman of the nominating committee. Assisting him were Mrs. Frederick H. Nicoll, vice-chairman, Paul R. Chesebrough, Mrs. Robert R. Cawley, Warren E. Dodson, Moore Gates, Jr., Mrs. Charles F. Griffin, Richard Pearson and Mrs. Frederick T. Richards.

UCW ELECTS OFFICERS
On Fellowship Day. Mrs. Thomas R. Webb, of Princeton Methodist Church, was elected president of the United Church Women at the May Fellowship
day luncheon.

Also named were Mrs. Roy S. Vogt of Calvary Baptist Church, chairman of World Relations Committee; Mrs. Orion C. Hopper, First Presbyterian Church, publicity and Mrs. David Taylor, Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, treasurer.

Funds donated at the luncheon
for the U.C.W. summer camp
project for needy children amounted to $511. Mrs. Harry
A. Hill, chairman of the camp committee, has announced
that there is sufficient money
on hand to send 18 children to camp. Donations are still being solicited.

Mrs. Hill has been asked to report on the camp project
this Friday in Ridgewood at the meeting of the State Council of United Church Women.
The Princeton unit is anxious to ensure summer camp for needy children are included
within the Council. Accompanying her will be Mrs.
Wells, Mrs. Hopper and Mrs.
Kenneth L. Maxwell.

ATTEND 178th ANNUAL Convention. Delegates to the 178th annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Trenton
this week were George R.
Griffine, George C. Alexander and Everett S. Wallis.
Alternates were James G.
Campbell, Jr., Foster D. Jemison
and John H. Wallace, Jr.
Jay B. Tomlinson, of Bordentown, retired chancellor, was honored as a guest at the convention.
